

Kids Stuff (Five Star Paperback)

Mark is a practical man; he expresses his feelings in actions rather than words. When his wife Nicole tells him that his ex, Kim, has called, he's speechless. He hasn't seen Kim or his daughter, Lily, for over ten years. When Mark meets Lily, it is not the joyful reunion that he had been longing for. She has grown into an angry and wayward teenager, much like her mother, and when Lily comes to stay with Mark and Nicole for Christmas, her disturbing presence threatens to destroy the new life Mark has built for himself. Kids Stuff is a painfully revealing novel about the modern man and the terrible damage that family members can do to each other.
