

The Christmas of 76: A Cavanaugh Story

Michael Corley, the narrator of James Kirk's The Mean Spirit of Christmas, recounts a boyhood Christmas in the small town of Cavanaugh, Georgia, the Christmas of 1976. Michael and his dad trek into the woods in search of an elusive grove of cedar trees Michael's dad remembers from his own childhood Christmas tree. When a swollen creek threatens to cost the family its tree, Michael learns a lesson in faith and trust that only his father can teach him.
