

FACTS ABOUT ALCOHOLISM There are approximately one hundred million alcoholics in the world today. Ninety-nine million will die of the disease. Sarah-Jane hasn't had a drink for four and a half years. That makes her one in a million So why isn't life idyllic for Sarah-Jane? Her waitress job barely covers her rent. Her sponsor's skipped off on a world cruise and abandoned her. And the girl she's trying to save from a life of drunkenness is totally mad. Boy does she need a drink. But she can't have one – can she?
