

The Hidden World Chronicles: Book 1 The Journey of the Chosen (Volume 1)

This adventure starts with a meeting on a deserted beach between a fatally ill child and a stranger. At the touch of the stranger, the child was changed into a perfectly healthy eleven-year-old boy. The boy was Gavin Graham. That touch from the stranger would change Gavins life forever. He would not meet the stranger again for thirty years. At that time the stranger, who was Dr. Charles Jennings, gave him an old journal that he asked to be transcribed from his handwriting. This journal told of a journey through the secret agencies and covert activities all over the nation and the world. It goes from Tibet, to the Pentagon, to CIA headquarters, to Area 51, and even to the Oval Office itself. It revealed the basis for the most guarded secrets of our nation and thrust five people on a journey of enlightenment, excitement, and spirituality that has never been heard of in the history of man. These five were to go to a hidden world written about only in ancient myths. These were no myths. They were real. The year that these five spent in this Hidden World changed them dramatically. After all, the fate of all mankind was in the balance. The journey culminates in an actual battle between good and evil. This battle takes place within this hidden world. Gavins next encounter with a beautiful new visitor from the hidden world left him with yet more adventures to write about. After all, being touched by a stranger had not only changed him, but also had made him a part of The Hidden World Chronicles.
