

The Candy Country (Illustrated)

An excerpt from the beginning of: THE CANDY COUNTRY I shall take mammas red sun umbrella, it is so warm, and none of the children at school will have one like it, said Lily, one day, as she went through the hall. The wind is very high; Im afraid youll be blown away if you carry that big thing, called Nurse from the window, as the red umbrella went bobbing down the garden walk with a small girl under it. I wish it would; I always wanted to go up in a balloon, answered Lily, as she struggled out of the gate. She got on very well till she came to the bridge and stopped to look over the railing at the water running by so fast, and the turtles sunning themselves on the rocks.
