

It was the time of the chosen, a future of revelations and awful fury, a time for the conclusion of ancient tales to unfold. In the phantom realm of the free-plane, the beleaguered spirits would face off for one final battle—a contest to possess the most powerful objects in the universe. It was the children who would see them—the mystical spheres spun from the plane and as old as time; the prize of savior or destroyer; the omens of change. But before they would even know of their destiny, the plague was upon them and the war of the travelers had begun.
