

Friendship: And Other Writings (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Friendship: And Other Writings
Friendship
Jubilate
Theres an oasis in the desert waste,
Theres an island in the deep;
A trusty star in heaven is placed
That my ship its course may keep;
Theres a tender, lilting melody
A-floating all around;
New cheer and hope and harmony
Through the love of a friend Ive found!
Rest
As twilight folds the tired world in its comforting, restful embrace, so doth Friendship enfold kindred spirits in its magic, mothering clasp; filling the hearts and lives of those elect who taste its worth and power. It diffuses a subtle, potent charm, quickening the flagging fires of life with a revivifying influence, which warms every member of ones being.
The Giver
Friendship freely gives of its best, yet is never impoverished thereby. It ennobles the giver and nourishes the recipient; it builds the former and sustains the latter. Hence, both partake of the fare sublime. It seeks no reward but the blessing of the object of regard, and counts service and sacrifice only privilege and pleasure.
