

The Sixth and Seventh Day Man: A Trilogy

Book one The time of Adam and Eve

In Chapter one of the book of Genesis, God the Father, CREATES a male and a female and blesses them and tells them to go out and REPLENISH the world. He gives them every thing His hands have created. These people of the Father God almost destroy them selves and create a weapon when discharged, covers the earth with a thick cloud and pigments their skin white. God the Father rests on the seventh day. In chapter two of the book of Genesis the Lord God FORMS a man on the seventh day, places him in a garden and forbids him from eating of the tree of life. When Adam and Eve are cast out of the garden they come face to face with the Sixth Day Man. The Seventh Day Man Adam, and his wife Eve, their children and their decedents are dark skinned, and clash with the white race of the Sixth Day people. Adam and Eve Who were formed on the Seventh Day by the Lord God, live on the Land of Adam where gopher wood grows. The Sixth Day Man Lives in the city of Eden which is ruled by Emperor Rama Dan Doo. They worship the god Ramah. Adam and Eve worship The Lord God. Book two The Time of Enoch This book continues the battles that the decedents of Adam and Eve must endure because of the color of their skin and their love for the Lord God. They are enslaved and treated horribly by the white skinned people of the world. The city of Eden and the Great city of Enoch are built on the backs of the children of Adam and Eve. Book three The Time of Noah The days of Noah mirrors our time in brutality and crime. The book is set into the future with anti-gravitational vehicles called click clacks and carts. Noah and his wife, who is his sister, along with his father and grandfather, return to the Land Of Adam and God tells him to build an ark. When Noah tells the world what God has planned He and his family are laughed at, But Noah continues to build with help. He has encounters with Satan who tries to discourage him. This book may be a bit intense for the younger reader. The scriptural verses in the Sixth and Seventh Day Man are taken from the King James Version of the Holy Bible.
