

Excerpt from A Discourse on the Life and Character of the Rev. Joseph Tuckerman, D. D Five years ago this Chapel was dedicated to the moral and religious instruction of the poor of this city. This event makes no noise in history, and may seem to some to merit no particular notice. It is remembered, however, by not a few individuals and families, as the beginning of many good influences. Still more, it is not an event which stands alone. This chapel is the sign of an important movement, which is not soon to pass away. It sprung from the labors of that faithful servant of God, to whom we owe the establishment of the Ministry at Large in this place. It is intimately connected with, and reveals to us his life and labors; and accordingly the anniversary of its dedication to religious services, is a fit occasion for offering a tribute to his memory.
